Petersen Has the Cat's Meow

Wiley Petersen, Team ASE cowboy, 25, Pocatello, ID, bull: Cat's Meow, "He's a new bull, so there aren't any stats on him. It'll kind of be a crapshoot, so I'll go at it one jump at a time," said Petersen. "I'm healthy (which is more than can be said about a lot of the top 45 guys), so I consider myself Blessed and will do my best to ride using all the abilities the Good Lord has given me."

Cat's Meow...this is the debut event for this bull on the BFTS.

Petersen on Nampa... "I love any event close to home, especially after 21 weeks straight with no break," said Petersen. "I feel good and am ready to ride in front of family and friends."

Henricks' Still on Doctor's Exempt Status

Dan Henricks, Herculiner Truck Liner cowboy, 25, Woodward, OK, "I really wanted to go to Nampa but after seeing Tandy (PBR physician) last weekend in Chicago, we decided to give my arm a little more time to recuperate," said Henricks. "I'm really chomping at the bit to get back in there; so as soon as Tandy releases me, I'll be hitting every Challenger Tour event I can get to."

Helmet Decal Wearers

After 22 weeks straight, with no weekends off, injuries are causing a major attrition rate in the top 45 PBR athletes. Now, with the addition of Briscoe to the injury list (his riding-hand injury was exacerbated at last weekend's event), three of our helmet decal wearers are down. Consequently, he will sit out the Nampa event this weekend and take some much needed healing time.

Canadian Tour

Reuben Geleynse will be representing Team ASE this weekend at three Challenger Tour events...Eastend, SK, on April 29; Trail, BC, on April 29; and Rodeo Leduc, AB, on April 30.
