Petersen Wins His Fourth PBR BFTS

Results Wiley Petersen, Team ASE Cowboy

First Round: 13/15 – 82.25 points – bull: Snowflake
Second Round: 12 – 85 points – bull: Born to Buck
Short Go: Second – 85.50 points – bull: Dippin XS Energy
Average: First – 642.75 points - $29,010
Standings: 8th, Built Ford Tough Series

Quotes:

"I'm very happy that I was the one to win the first event in PBR history to take place in Mexico," said Petersen. "The PBR fans are very excited to have us here and the people of Mexico have given us a wonderful reception. I'm honored to win the Chihuahua Challenge and I hope to return to this event for many years to come."

"That's the first time I've drawn Dippin XS Energy and he was great. He actually bucked me off and I had to grit my teeth and keep riding and scratching to stay on him. I have to give credit to God. I'm thankful to win my fourth title of the season and grateful for good health," said Petersen.

Notes:

Petersen has in the top 15 for the entire PBR season standings. He is the only PBR athlete to win four events this season. He is 2475 points out of first place and only 585 out of fifth.

Results: Dan Henricks, Herculiner Truck Liners Cowboy
